

WORDS OF GRACE

A Publication of GracePoint Church

Christ-Releasing Relationships

“... put on the new self, created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness... Let no corrupting talk come out of your mouths, but only such as is good for building up, as fits the occasion, that it may give grace to those who hear.”
Ephesians 4:24, 29

We can be Christ’s sculpting tool as we allow the Holy Spirit to give us a spiritually artistic eye to see always the beauty and glory of Christ in one another. Let us embrace a New Covenant model of spiritual friendships, based on a new model that I am coining “Grace-ability.”

Accountability assumes failure. Accountability asks, “How bad did you mess up this time?”

Grace-ability affirms grace in the face of sin and struggle, assumes the Holy Spirit’s redemptive work, and moves into the mess and mystery of each other’s heart to release the image of Christ already there.

Grace-ability asks, “How has the Holy Spirit been convicting, comforting, or changing you? Where have you seen God’s grace operating in your life this week?”

Christ’s movement toward us is never the “How could you?” or the “You should!” of shame and judgment. Christ’s movement toward us is always, and so our movement toward others can be, “You shall be!” “You can!” “You already are!”

No matter how deep your sin, struggle, or shame right now, Christ is always declaring over your life, “Yes, you are experiencing that right now, but if you run to my throne of grace, you shall experience forgiveness, empowerment, healing, freedom, and extravagant love.”

The thrust of the New Testament, the New Covenant, is never “Shape up, you lousy sinner!” Instead, it is “By the Spirit, put off that old, dead, false self, and put on who you already are in Christ, a saint, holy and dearly beloved.”

Christ is the master sculptor of our lives, always seeing us as Ephesians 2:10 describes us, as “God’s masterpiece, created in Christ Jesus.”

Let us pour grace-ability toward one another, always seeing the best in one another, always polishing the masterpiece of Christ already within one another.

As Christ declares over us, so we can declare over one another, “You used to be __ (and you can fill in the blank—an addict, a victim, a child of an alcoholic, a codependent, defined by greed or lust, etc.) but now you are a royal son or daughter of the King!”

Pauline BrimeyerGOT BLOOD – PLEASE DONATE*BECAUSE WE CARE!*JANUARY 8, 2014

Last July we hosted our 8th blood drive for the Mississippi Valley Regional Blood Center. We have collected 118 units of whole blood in those 8 drives, and since each unit of whole blood is manufactured into 3 components, our drives have resulted in 354 safe and reliable blood products for area patients suffering illness or injury. Wow! This is definitely something to be proud of!

Most of us know people with heart disease and cancer who will likely need a blood transfusion. We cannot let up after the holidays, as there is an even greater need right now. We are asking you to give about an hour of your time to donate blood on January 8th. Don't let excuses keep you from saving lives. Please schedule an appointment time at the Blood Donation table in the lobby for a time that fits your schedule.

We plan to pamper our heroes who donate blood with some great home-made chili. In addition, we feel it would be nice to have treats such as cookies and bars. If you are unable to donate blood, please sign up for the food and drink donations also at the Blood Donation table in the lobby.

When you come to donate, please remember to eat a nutritious meal at least 4 hours before donating, drink plenty of fluids, and bring your donor card, driver's license, or social security card. If you have any questions, please contact Pam De Meester.

GRACEPOINT YEAR-END MEETINGS

Annual Reports are due in the office by December 30th. Please send them electronically to office@gracepointdbq.org. It would be helpful if you would put annual report as part of your title.

Annual Reports will be available to members and regular attenders in the lobby on Sunday, January 19th.

Annual Meeting is January 26, 2014. The potluck starts at 11:45am, with the meeting following.

Financial Stewardship Update

The Finance Team has been working to complete some "best practices" regarding our financial recordkeeping. Going forward, when requesting a reimbursement check for personal expenses paid on behalf of GracePoint (an example would be buying communion supplies), please use the Check Reimbursement Request that is available in the office. This will always be the current version of the form, and any changes that might be made in the future will be on this form. Only requests presented on this form with proper approval will be accepted.

Once the form is filled out and approval is signed for by the appropriate person, checks for approved expenses will be issued on Thursday and put in either the Elder's mailbox, the Deacon Moderator mailbox, or the Pick Up mailbox, as is appropriate. If approving Elders are not available during the time reimbursement is needed, the Elder to Finance has been given authority to approve expenses in their absence.

Bills will continue to be paid as received. Questions may be directed to Mary Burns, Elder to Finance. Thank you!

Woman to Woman Luncheon

Attention: All ladies (high school and older)

Please join us for the next Woman to Woman (formerly known as Women Mentoring Women) luncheon, 12:00–1:30 pm Sunday, January 12, 2014, in the GracePoint Conference Room. What a wonderful opportunity to share our lives with other women! Please let us know by Wednesday, January 8, if you'll be coming. We think you will enjoy the chance to warm up, inside and out!

An optional second feature of Woman to Woman is the opportunity to be paired one-on-one with another woman to share a walk or coffee, etc., during the upcoming month. This has been quite popular with those who have participated.

And the third optional feature of Woman To Woman is the opportunity to become a mentor or mentee where women are matched to come alongside another for Christian friendship, support, and growth.

You are welcomed to participate in any or all of these parts of this Woman to Woman program.

For more information or to RSVP for the January luncheon, please contact Pam Hillary at pam.hillary@gmail.com or 563.580.9523 OR Martha Intveld at martha.intveld@gmail.com or 563.581.6371 OR Karen Storlie at karen.storlie@mheducation.com or 563.580.0734.

Per-Member Asking

The Per-Member Asking for 2014 remains the same as 2013—$40 per member per year. This amount is split between The Rivers & Lakes Presbytery and the Evangelical Presbyterian Church (EPC). This is the primary means for funding the administrative budget for each of these entities. It helps pay for office operations for the various ministries: Office of the Stated Clerk, National Outreach, Student & College Ministries, Women's Ministries, and World Outreach Ministries.

GracePoint is asked to pay $40 per active member as of December 31st, regardless of age, whether or not the members themselves donate using the Initial Offering envelope. Please contribute all that you can to this fund, both to support these causes and to help defray the amount that GracePoint has to take from the General Budget to cover this total. All amounts given are helpful, so please contribute whatever amount you are able.

GLOBAL MISSIONS

Matt Welde to “Retire”

This past August the Global Missions Team received the news that Matt Welde is retiring as missionary, evangelist and teacher. For the past two decades he has carried out assignments around the world with gratitude to God for those opportunities. In his letter to us he states that by actual count he has travelled to 56 countries of the world and that he has preached and lectured in an estimated 30 of these countries.

Like Paul he acknowledges that he has kept his pledge to the Lord that he would be an obedient servant and go where God beckoned him—to small churches, medium churches, and large churches. He has conducted meetings in stadiums to many thousands of people. He also has preached to smaller gatherings in market places and churches. Many thousands have made decisions for Christ and are walking in newness of life.

He also attempted to love the people to whom he ministered. He walked in humility, recognizing always that the glory must be given to God in all that he did.

Matt and Millie, his wife, are both 81 years old. Matt’s health is still pretty good, but Millie has fourth stage cancer which restricts her activities and requires Matt to be part-time caregiver. Therefore Matt is eliminating his travel to cities and towns around the world, but praying that God will open new doors of opportunity for him to speak at churches and seminaries in the United States. In addition, he plans to do some writing on different subjects.

God willing, the Global Missions Team will continue to support Matt and Millie in their retirement years.

For the Global Missions Team, Scott Arnold

The above has been excerpted from Matt’s letter of August 6, 2013.

Youth Ministry on Sabbatical

Your Elders on Session have discerned after much prayer, discussion, and dialogue with Pastor Dana that it is best to place all youth ministry on a sabbatical hold at least for the month of January.

With Pastor Dana no longer in direct leadership of youth ministry, we need this time to discern who will be in direct leadership, and how best to restructure our youth ministry around the giftedness of whoever this new youth director will be, and around whoever will continue to serve as youth leaders under this new director.

In January, we will schedule a series of meetings for prayer, discernment, and planning with Pastors Chris and Dana and with all those interested in serving on a youth leadership team. If you have been serving in youth ministry and sense a call to continue, or if you are sensing a call to begin serving in this area, please let Pastor Chris know, from January 3–8, so he can include you in these meetings.

Please be in much prayer for these gatherings, for the future of GracePoint's youth ministry, and for our youth as they grieve the loss of Pastor Dana and transition to a new leader and new format for our weekly youth gatherings.

Missional Donation Project Team Report

Can You Smell the Coffee?

The Fellowship Center Makeover continues, with the Coffee Café being installed next.

The board-and-batten wood walls have been installed, as well as the ceiling acoustical “Clouds”. New LED Light Fixtures are mounted on each cloud. The new lights are extremely efficient, burning only 35 watts at full brightness. One of these 2’ x 2’ lights replaces an 8 foot fluorescent fixture of four 40 watt bulbs!

The north half of the Fellowship Center is complete, to include the relocated screen, sound system, and additional lighting control. The Precepts Class will resume in the new space later in January.

A custom cart was built for the Hand Bell Tables. This cart stores under the new counter in the south classroom, and allows all tables to be moved together when needed in the sanctuary.

Work now is concentrating on the Coffee café. Cabinets and dishwasher have arrived, and supplies have been ordered. Installation is waiting on the electrical work.

There has been significant contribution of labor by a few faithful members. Many thanks for their dedication to GracePoint and this project. We look forward to having this re-envisioned space ready for new outreach ministries.

Your Missional Project Team,

Elder Pam DeMeester, Elder Ken Godwin, Dan Baker, Bob DeMeester, Sara Scherf

Church Christmas Un-decorating!

Please plan on being at GracePoint at 9:30am Saturday, January 11th, to help put GracePoint back to ‘normal’. Rolls and coffee will be provided. If you have questions contact Doug Storlie, 556-7548.

Dear GracePoint Friends,

Isaiah 55:8-11 says "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, declares the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts. For as the rain and the snow come down from heaven and do not return there but water the earth, making it bring forth and sprout, giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose, and shall succeed in the thing for which I sent it".

As you read this you will have experienced the congregational meeting that included the work of releasing me to transition my call from GracePoint to another place. Looking back at the last five years, I'd like to give thanks to God for the most enjoyable ministry I've ever experienced and the incredible blessings our family received being at GracePoint and being in Dubuque. Together we can thank God for the outreach pipeline of relationships made with kids and youth through Music Theater Camp and GraceUnderground, for some connections with young adults over the years, for some new ways to express the inexpressible in worship, and for the general blessing of being together. In addition to the programmed ministry the church put together, a lot happened in the course of events that was directed by God for His purposes.

That's the stuff I'd like to give thanks for, but I can't seem to find the words to express it. Why did God bring us together for this season? What missions did we complete? How do we understand it all? I believe intuitively that our call to be together has as much to do with how we will serve God in the future as it does, how we served Him recently.

GracePoint really is a one pastor church. I have come to realize that I need to be the pastor of a congregation rather than a staff pastor. Embracing this is a key to serving God well in this next season. If we hold each other close and always value the time we served together, I believe we'll have a key ingredient of inspiration in the days ahead. Our season together may be like leaven for the blessing God has for us on our future separate paths. (Luke 13:20-21) And again he said, "To what shall I compare the kingdom of God? It is like leaven that a woman took and hid in three measures of flour, until it was all leavened." We don't really know what kind of future we're looking at, but we do know the God we'll serve as we go into it. Keeping our hearts set on serving well will be fruitful.

So have faith. This is God's doing. If we're faithful in small things, we'll be given greater responsibilities. If we're faithful trusting God with the unknowns in this transition, we'll have the courage to hear Him challenge us to greater things. Let us never give up on giving our best service.

With love in Christ, Pastor Dana

Don't forget to sign up to bring treats for fellowship time on Sundays.
